

Shhh...
Fumio Obata

Cast: with the voices of Neil Kempself and Helen Comloquoy

Synopsis:

When a ringing mobile phone disturbs a quiet old library, an old man uses a magical thumb trick with sweeping consequences, unaware that his grandson has been slyly observing him...

Director's Biography:

Fumio Obata was born in Tokyo in 1975, and moved to the UK at the age of 16. After completing a BA in Illustration at Glasgow School of Art, he attended the Royal College of Art where he produced his Masters film "Box". After creating animated backdrops for Duran Duran's worldwide tour, he was selected to take part in Channel 4's Animator in Residence Scheme at the National Museum of Photography, Film and Television in Bradford. He completed his residency film at Red Kite Animations in Edinburgh, where he is now based.

Filmography

2003-Box(MA graduation film)

2004-Careless Memories(Stage backdrop projection for Duran Duran)

2005-Nice(Stage backdrop projection for Duran Duran)

2006-Shhh...(Channel4 AIR scheme film)